Hardway; supervisors elected were for Leigh District, R. W. Carter; Giles District, Dr. M. Y. Cheatham; Jackson District, C. B. White.

Spotsylvania. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 4.—A great victory in the election here was the defeat for the House of Delegates of Hon. J. H. Biscoe, present member and Democratic candidate for re-election, by M. H. Dickinson, a store-keeper of Spotsylvania county, who ran as an Independent candidate. Biscoe carried this city by 190 majority. Dickinson carried the county by a larger majority, which gave him the election.

In King George county, J. T. Minor, Jr., Democrat, was elected by a majority of 304 over W. B. Payne, Republican. W. A. Rose, Republican, present Commonwealth's attorney, defeated ex-Judge Charles H. Ashton by a majority of 246. R. M. Jones, Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates, carried the county by 190 majority, but Stafford county, which is part of the district, gave M. K. Lowry, Republican, and present delegate, a majority of several hundred, and he was re-elected from the district.

In Lancaster county, Frank G. Nowhill, for Commonwealth's attorney, defeated Thomas G. Downing, incumbent, by a majority of 52.

Mecklenburg. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BOYDTON, VA., Nov. 4.—All the precincts in Mecklenburg heard from save one small one. The result gives Goode a majority over Wood for Commonwealth's attorney of eleven hundred. Beales over Phillips, for sheriff, 1,307. Coghill had no opposition for treasurer, his vote being 1,692. Pettus and Montgomery, for commissioners of the revenue, received a majority over their opponents by majorities ranging from nine hundred to one thousand. S. P. Read, Democrat, was elected to House of Delegates, without opposition. There was about two-third of vote of the county polled.

Middlesex. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) STONEMONT, VA., Nov. 4.—George T. Hundey was elected by 400 majority over W. H. Repas, Republican, and Walter B. Chewning, Independent.
